

Faith-Based Organization/Religious Leader Representation and Faith Topics at ICFP 2016

This document is a compilation of sessions, poster presentations, and ICFP-related events that have FBO or religious leader representation or address the role of faith in family planning.

Tuesday, January 26

Morning Breakout Sessions: 10:30 – 11:50am

1.1.16 Faith, Family Planning, and Sexual and Reproductive Health / Foi, planification familiale et santé sexuelle et reproductive | Location: Legian 5

FBO Co-Moderator: Ahmed R. A. Ragab, MD; Ph.D, Professor of Reproductive Health, Al-Azhar University, Egypt

FBO Co-Moderator: Douglas Huber, MD, Christian Connections for International Health

FBO Presenter: Dominika Jaikowicz, Faith to Action Network, DSW

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 12:00 – 1:20pm

1.2.08 Developing Family Planning Services: FBOs as Cost-effective Structures/ Décentraliser les services de planification familiale: Organisations religieuses, structures rentables | Location: Kintamani 6

FBO Moderator: Azza Karam, UNFPA Faith Liaison

FBO Presenters: Jane Kishoyian, Christian Health Association of Kenya

Ahmed R. A. Ragab, MD; Ph.D, Professor of Reproductive Health, Al-Azhar University, Egypt

1.2.13 Post-Abortion Family Planning / Planification familiale post-avortement | Location: Legian 1

FBO Presenter: Douglas Huber, MD, Christian Connections for International Health

1.2.19 The Importance of Access and Quality of Care in Family Planning / L'importance de l'accès et la qualité des soins en planification familiale | Location: Legian 8

FBO Co-Moderator: Mona Bormet, Christian Connections for International Health

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 2:30 – 3:50pm

1.3.12 The Quality of Family Planning Care: Assessing, Ensuring and Knowing / La qualité des soins de planification familiale: Evaluer, garantir, connaître | Location: Mengwi 3+5

FBO Presenter: Sana Tanzil, Aga Khan University

1.3.19 New Insights on Post-Partum Family Planning / Nouvelles connaissances sur la planification familiale post-partum | Location: Legian 8

FBO Presenter: S.M. Mostafa Kamal, Islamic University

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 4:20 – 5:40pm

1.4.12 Faith-Based Health Leadership in Africa: An Integral Part of Improving Family Planning and Reproductive Health/ Leadership Religieux en Afrique: Partie Intégrante de l'Amélioration de la Planification familiale et la santé de reproduction | Location: Mengwi 3+5

FBO Presenters: Dr. Tonny Tumwesigwe, Uganda Protestant Medical Bureau, Uganda

Ms. Veronica Mkusa, IMA World Health/Tanzania

Dr. Prince Bosco, Caritas

1.4.15 Sex, contraception, infection, and nutrition: Making healthy births and healthy children / Sexe, contraception, infection et nutrition: Pour des naissances sans risque et des enfants en bonne santé |

Location: Legian 3

FBO Presenter: Grana Pu Selvi Gnanarai, World Vision India

Wednesday, January 27

Morning Breakout Sessions: 10:30 – 11:50am

2.1.07 Transitioning from pilot to scale: Challenges and successes of “beginning with the end in mind”/ Du projet pilote à la mise à échelle: Défis et succès de commencer avec la fin en tête | Location: Kintamani 5

FBO Presenter: Charles Kabiswa, Ecological Christian Organization/HoPE-LVB Project

2.1.11 Demand generation and social change / Création de la demande et changement social |

Location: Mengwi 1+2

FBO Presenter: Moussé Fall, Réseau Islam et Population (Islam and Population Network)

2.1.12 Health benefits of Family Planning: The MNCH connection / Bénéfices de santé de la planification familiale: La connection MNCH | Location: Mengwi 3+5

FBO Moderator: Lily Haritu Foglabenchi, Cameroon Baptist Convention Health Services

2.1.16 Leveraging community resources to meet demand / Mettre à profit les ressources communautaires pour répondre à la demande | Location: Legian 5

FBO Presenter: Katie Waller, Concern Worldwide, US

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 12:00 – 1:20pm

2.2.20 It Takes Two - Couple decisionmaking and FP acceptability / Il en faut deux: Prise de décision des couples et acceptabilité de la PF | Location: Legian 9

FBO Presenter: Lily Haritu Foglabenchi, Cameroon Baptist Convention Health Services

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 2:30 – 3:50pm

2.3.11 High-Impact Practices from the Ouagadougou Partnership in Francophone West Africa – What’s working! / Pratiques de haut impact du partenariat de Ouagadougou en Afrique de l’Ouest: Ce qui marche! |

Location: Mengwi 1+2

FBO Presenter: Imam Moussa Fall, Réseau Islam et Population (Islam and Population Network)

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 4:20 – 5:40pm

2.4.06 Dimensions of contraceptive acceptability: New methods, new settings / Dimensions de l’acceptabilité de la contraception: Nouvelles méthodes, nouvelles situations | Location: Kintamani 3

FBO Moderator: Susan Otchere, World Vision US

2.4.13 Linking women’s autonomy and contraceptive use / Lien entre l’autonomie des femmes et l’utilisation contraceptive | Location: Legian 1

FBO Presenter: Sayyeda Reza, Aga Khan University

2.4.14 Context matters: Factors affecting youth reproductive health in different contexts / Le contexte compte: Facteurs affectant la santé de la reproduction dans différents contextes | Location: Legian 2

FBO Moderator: Gabriela Cristina Milla Godoy, Young Women’s Christian Association of Honduras

FBO Presenter: Anjali Pandey, Banaras Hindu University

2.4.15 Men and family planning: Visible and invisible champions / Les hommes et la planification familiale: Les champions visibles et invisibles | Location: Legian 3

FBO Presenter: Bevalyn Kedogo, World Vision Kenya

Thursday, January 28

Morning Breakout Sessions: 10:30 – 11:50am

3.1.02 South-South Cooperation: Sharing Indonesia’s experience in Family Planning with other developing countries / Coopération Sud-Sud: Partage d’expérience de l’Indonésie en planification familiale avec d’autres pays en voie de développement | Location: Uluwatu 1

FBO Presenters: Prof Musdah Mulia, State Islamic University of Syarif Hidayatullah, Jakarta
Dr. Risman Musa, Religious Leader, UNFPA-BKKBN Consultant

3.1.06 Holistic care: How faith-based organizations are integrating family planning into development programs / Soins holistiques: Comment les organisations religieuses intègrent la planification familiale aux programmes de développement | Location: Kintamani 3

FBO Presenters: Sonya Funna, Adventist Development and Relief Agency
Devina Shah, World Vision

Adrienne Allison, World Vision
Lisa Firth, MBBS, MPH, Salvation Army
Dr. Ronald Kasyaba, Uganda Catholic Medical Bureau

3.1.17 Patterns and Trends in contraceptive use: New results from Senegal, Ghana, Tanzania, Uganda and India / Modèles et tendances de l'utilisation contraceptive: Nouveaux résultats du Sénégal, Ghana, Tanzanie, Ouganda et Inde | Location: Legian 6

FBO Presenter: Damian Jeremia Damian, Kilimanjaro Christian Medical University College

3.1.18 Inspiring, motivating, re-invigorating: Generating demand for family planning / Inspirer, motiver, revigorer: Génération de la demande pour la planification familiale | Location: Legian 7

FBO Presenter: Sana Tazil, Aga Khan University Karachi
Cynthia Nyakwama, World Vision Kenya

Afternoon Breakout Sessions: 12:00 – 1:20pm

3.2.17 Long-acting and permanent methods: Rises, plateaus and reversals / Méthodes de longue durée d'action et permanentes: Montées, plateaux et renversements | Location: Legian 6

FBO Presenter: Anyta Ekaningsih, Muhammadiyah University of Tangerang

3.2.18 Capitalizing on the promise of Community Health Worker programs / Capitaliser sur la promesse des programmes d'Agents de Santé Communautaire | Location: Legian 7

Faith-related Presentation: Marie Mukabatsinda, Institute for Reproductive Health / Rwanda

Poster Presentations

Location: Jimbaran and Uluwatu Lobbies

Poster Session 1 - Tuesday, January 26, 2016, 10:00am - 1:20pm

- Hesty Damayanti Saleh, University of Jember, The role of religious leaders and community leaders in socialization of population and family planning program
- Abhishek Anurag Toppo, World Vision India, Re-positioning prevailing resources to increase access to and reduce unmet need for FP

Poster Session 2 - Tuesday, January 26, 2016, 2:20 - 5:40pm

- Abhishek Anurag Toppo, World Vision India, Yes! We have to talk about it: Family Planning helps time and space pregnancies
- Narjis Rizvi, Aga Khan University, Inform and educate young Pakistani women to enhance contraceptive use

Poster Session 3 - Wednesday, January 27, 2016, 10:00am – 1:20pm

- Audu Alayande, UNFPA, Traditional and Religious Leaders Facilitate Family Planning Demand in Sokoto State, North-Western Nigeria
- Morine Sirera, Jhpiego, Increasing Uptake of Family Planning through Religious Leaders: A Case of Makadara and Embakasi Religious Leaders
- Asrat Dibaba Tolossa, World Vision International, Channels of Hope Approach for HTSP/FP Information and Services Demand Creation in Burundi
- Addise Amado Dube, Ethiopian Graduate School of Theology, Faith and Family Planning: Are Faith-Based Organizations Obstacles or Opportunities? The roles of men in family planning in the evangelical circles.
- Sayyeda Reza, Aga Khan University, Determinants of non-use of contraceptives – A cross-sectional study from ten squatter settlements of Karachi, Pakistan

Poster Session 4 - Wednesday, January 27, 2016, 2:20 – 5:40pm

- Kafui da Silveira, ONG Espoir de la Famille, Mobilisation des leaders religieux pour une reponse Chretienne pour la promotion de la SR/PF au benin: cas de la region Oueme-Plateau (Mobilization of religious leaders for a Christian response for the promotion of RH/FP in Benin: a case from the region of Oueme-Plateau)

- Martin Laourou, Engender Health, The religious leaders have started making commitments about the use of contraception in West Africa: The cases of Togo, Burkina Faso and Côte d'Ivoire
- Narjis Rizvi, Aga Khan University, Exploring role of social, cultural and religious factors on family planning use and choice of methods: A case study from district Swat, Khyber Pakhtunkhwa, Pakistan
- S.M. Mostafa Kamal, Islamic University, Association between women's empowerment and contraceptive use and method choice in four South Asian countries

Poster Session 5 – Thursday, January 28, 2016, 10:00am – 1:20pm

- Vitalis Mukhebi, Faith to Action Network, Family planning among African indigenous churches: A case study of Akorino Holy Christian Church in Soweto Slums, Nairobi, Kenya
- Jully Chilambwe, Jhpiego/Zambia, Overcoming religious barriers towards provision of LARC services at a faith-based health facility: Sharing experiences from Mpongwe, a district of rural Zambia
- Jean Claude Wema, Cordaid, Amélioration de l'utilisation de la PF grâce au PBF et au CCT (Increasing family planning use through performance-based financing and Conditional Cash Transfer)

Topical Roundtables

Tuesday, January 26 (during lunch -13:30-14:20)

- Faith and FP - come, learn, and share about your work with faith communities in addressing unmet need for FP
Facilitated by: Mona Bormet, Christian Connections for International Health (CCIH)
Location: Singaraja Hall 1

On-Site Auxiliary Events

Tuesday, January 26 (7:00 – 8:20am)

- Event: Short film to be shown on facts and factors of child marriage in Bangladesh. Film title: "Tuni"
Sponsored by: Islamic University
Location: Legian 3

Tuesday, January 26 (6:00 – 7:30pm)

- Event: Young women's decision making on family planning and the role of religious beliefs and cultural traditions
Sponsored by: Progressio
Presenters: Mona Bormet, Christian Connections for International Health; Esnarth Priminta, YONECO; Fadhilee, Kenyan Muslim Youth Alliance
Location: Mengwi 3+5
- Event: The Power of Collective Change: A reception and dialogue about normative transformation to promote adolescent sexual and reproductive health
Sponsored by Passages Project Team: Institute for Reproductive Health (IRH); FHI 360, John Hopkins Global Early Adolescent Study (GEAS), Population Services International (PSI), Save the Children, Tearfund
Location: Seminyak Lounge

Thursday, January 28 (7:00 – 8:20am)

- Panel Discussion on Islam and Family Planning in Indonesia
Sponsored by UNFPA Indonesia
Location: Legian 2